Unable to cast object of type 'System.String' to type 'System.String[]'. What I did is set the Target Server and the Command Line Arguments. I also set the Command Line Script to System.Scripting.CommandLine. Here's the full content of the script. I used the complete sample provided at using System; using System.Windows.Forms; using Microsoft.TeamFoundation.Build.Client; using Microsoft.TeamFoundation.Build.Workflow; using Microsoft.TeamFoundation.Build.Workflow.Activities; namespace CommandLine_Build { public partial class Main : Activity { public void Run(ActivityContext context, IWorkflowContext workflowContext) { // Declare an instance of the build provider. BuildProvider buildProvider = null; // Retrieve the workflow from the context. Workflow workflow = context.GetExtension(); // Get a reference to a build provider. buildProvider = workflow.GetBuildProvider(); if (buildProvider == null)

3D Soccer(also known as 3D PES) was a spin-off from Pro Evolution Soccer (PES), created by PES developers GIS Technology and released in November 2006. It was developed specifically for Nintendo GameCube and was the first football game in the series to be released on a console. It was intended to have a more authentic gameplay, more realistic dribbling and a completely different game-play from the PES series.
