Like the Fair, the Arts and Culture experience is full of interactive activities for families and businesses, including classes, shows and performances. It all starts with an opening night welcome party and concludes with a party after the State Fair. On the first day of the State Fair, the Waco Convention & Visitors Bureau will hold a welcome party on the grounds of the Texas AgriLife Extension office. Admission is free. On Wednesday, Aug. 20, the 10th annual Waco Paint Nite will be held on the West Hall at the Texas AgriLife Extension office. The event will begin at 6:30 p.m. and include adult and children's painting classes, tours of the facility and demonstration by Master Painter Ted Gully. On Aug. 21, the State Fair Parade and The Great Lawn Concert will be held at 5 p.m. Live bands, including three bands from the Texas State Fair Parade Competition, will perform. On Aug. 22, the Waco Convention & Visitors Bureau will host the 13th Annual Waco Film Festival, which will be held at the Waco Municipal Auditorium. The festival will kick off at 4 p.m. with a Welcome Cocktail Party and continue through Aug. 29. The arts and culture experience continues at the State Fair with a Kids Zone, the KidFest Festival in the Pavilion, the Country USA concert and stage show on Saturday, Aug. 30, and a Kids Run at the State
