Tuesday, December 14, 2008 Struggling to Make Ends Meet It's getting harder and harder to make ends meet. My cup of coffee was $3.75 last month. I received a bill in the mail for $7.12 and in my account I had $59.81. I'm trying to recoup all the money I lost by ordering $10 worth of groceries on eBay, but no auction winnings yet. I'm still having trouble paying all my bills on time, and with five days until the next billing cycle, it may be a long time before my account balance improves. I'm also thinking about taking some time off to spend with my family, starting in January. It's hard to make your business grow when you don't have enough time to devote to the company and your family at the same time.
