Quizmaster is an educational quiz application that allows users to play educational games for fun and practice their general knowledge. All the games are based on multiple-choice settings, following the same, clean and polished design language. Initially, the games can be tailored, with many of the free built-in templates featuring complete sets of subjects, including: French, German, English, and Primary Mathematics. Games can also be modified in-app and players can access the full range of available subjects by tapping the "Add more categories" option. These categories include a full range of subjects, from most basic math quizzes to more challenging games, including: Vocabulary, Grammar, and Idioms. Once chosen, the rest of the game (as well as the quiz items) will be adapted to correspond with the selected category. The categories also include quizzes on named entities, such as "Person", "Places", "Animals", and "Famous figures". Finally, the games can be used to practice vocabulary based upon multiple domains, with the user choosing from the categories "Books", "Musical Instruments", "Songs", and "Famous Movies". Play one of twelve built-in quiz templates The quiz templates cover the major language groups, including: English, French, German, and Primary Mathematics. Additionally, there are also quizzes on Sports, Pets, History, TV shows, and Inventions. The templates can be used as is, or different subsets of items can be chosen based on a variety of characteristics. Such factors include: Video games, Songs, Foods, and Drinks. Once one of these categories is chosen, the program allows a variable number of items to be displayed. This will allow players to choose items from only the categories they wish, while at the same time avoiding tedious choices in the event of a large game. Additionally, quiz items can be filtered based on predicted difficulty, with easy items hidden from the user until they choose the appropriate category. Users can manage which categories to play and access more information about each item by tapping the "What's that" option. Here, users can see the list of categories for a given item, as well as their difficulty. The more difficult the item, the longer the explanation given to each category. Play the five available games Quizmaster also allows players to choose one of five available b7e8fdf5c8

Quizmaster

Quizmaster is an unique quiz tool. There are many ways you can use it, the first being to enjoy the games with your friends or family. My favorite way of using the program is to find out how I know certain things. I use the program to find out things I never knew. My best friend, who lives in Sydney, Australia, looked it up on the program and found out that I knew that the prime numbers are 2, 3, 5, 7, 11, and 13. It also found out that I knew that in the 10th century, Rome was the capital of the Western Roman Empire and that by the 10th century, Egypt was an Arab nation. But, the most fun part of using the program is that you can become a quiz master. Some people just like to be quiz masters. Once you become a quiz master, you get to choose one of the 12 games available (5 games for 2 players, and 7 for one player). Once you choose one of the games, you can use the quiz for just one reason or if you chose, you can try to get as many questions right as you can! Also, you can use the program to help your friend, if you want to be a quiz master. Game Templates: 1. Connections: A game about guessing what two letter connection a word has. 2. Snakes and Ladders: The classic game you can play on a computer or connect online. Your goal is to climb the ladder to the top (or win if you choose one of the tougher games). The harder the game, the more moves it will take. 3. At the Races: At the Races is where you play a game with horses. You start with a pile of money. Each race has a pay off for you as the winner and a value to the horse. When the race is over, you pick which horse you want to be. The horse can win, your money can be lost, or you can keep the money you started with. It is not over till it's over. If you lose all of your money you can get it back in your next game. 4. Millionaire: A game about how much you can earn by what you know. The game has over 100 questions, the more you know, the more money you can make. 5. The Sky's the Limit: The Sky's the Limit is a game where you play a game with a rocket. All you need to do is see how much money
