Aspiring writers, artists, and engineers, Jeff, Bryan, and Brad worked in the videogame industry for over 10 years, first at Rare Ltd. and then at Zugal Entertainment, before returning to the educational field. Project Voxel Scavenger is the trio's first foray into video game development and creation and comes from a deep passion for clean, minimalist graphics and high quality gameplay. The project's style has been influenced by several different genres of gameplay such as, platformers, and puzzlers as well as challenge games such as Dark Souls, the original Portal, as well as the indie underground. The game features 10 unique levels, each with its own theme and style, as well as 12 weapons to find and hack together. You are required to collect as many salvage items as you can find to repair the spaceship. If you do not repair the ship within 5 minutes of being junked, your 2nd Self will say: "I am sorry I was junked... but now I will die with you..."

Features Key:

An epic themed RPG, similar to Fate and Baldurs Gate!
A 600,000+ word story full of comedy, grief, betrayal, intrigue, and most importantly...stardom!
Multiple paths to victory, each with their own rewards
Play the game and give yourself a chance to become the galaxy's greatest hero
Balcony mode features to help you get on the hook mode experience. (See Fix The Bouncer for more info)
Hire bodyguards, alien spies, and the world's most accursed assassins
And of course, the banhammer!!

This is more of a concept than a copy of an existing game, but please let me know if you see any fun errors I can correct. Please post critiques that are respectful.

collection Bunny as a character, actually came as a result of seeing a little old man eat a bunny on a visit to Cudahy, Wisconsin (Bunny used to be on the back page of Craig's Cruncher's comic-book). He was adopted by a little girl named Jane and became her "pet", after she learned that he was baby food. Jane's parents, at first, didn't have a problem with the idea of a baby orphan eating their food but then, Bunny's cooking bit her in half. Luckily, two men, "Dog Guy" and "Cat Guy" came and rescued the girl (now, no one knows why, but you get the feeling that Cat Guy had a nervous breakdown and Dog Guy's face was split in two). The two men warned Jane that she would never be able to hold her best friend, Bunny back again as he was about to hear bunny hearts beating everywhere, and had a fever of 57 degrees. They told her to run to the sand, dig a hole and then "bury herself and Bunny together". One morning, Jane woke up and Bunny was nowhere in sight. She went to his bean pot and pulled out Bunny and buried him again. Then, he erupted from the ground, causing Jane to move to the other side of the woods. They lived together until the day she was born in January 1st, 1978. Jane held her mother close to her chest as she watched every day for her "bunny". She was overjoyed that she still had him, but thought it odd that he wasn't moving. A paramedic was called and after being asked what was wrong with her mom, he said "She was running a fever, but that was all." After they left, Jane went and found Bunny tucked away in a hole. Bunny is a favorite bunny of the King of Scotland, Bruce Campbell. While Bonnie Prince Charlie was on the run, Campbell was asked to hide in a small room that had been prepared for him. The room was clean and had a sofa, a table and a window. Campbell took out a Bible and began reading. The Lord was mocking him and Campbell was enduring even more ridicule, when he finished the Book of Ruth and left. The Lord changed his mood and smiled at the very idea of Bruce Campbell forever reading. A natural comedy actor, Campbell has been quoted saying "I realized it in my twenties. Then God lowered a curtain, like it did for Dickens. I simply never took the

Playing with unique objects, such as crabs, in a world where everything becomes a plaything is entertaining. But what about the crabs, who want to play, too? It is Crabux! A game about crabs! You can play with it using your smartphone, tablet, or PC, where you can give it a belly-rub on your Android device. You control the tiny crab with your fingers, and even though you have absolutely no idea what it's trying to do, it's easily fun to play, because it's so rewarding to win! The game is set up like a sandbox, where you explore the town in which you play, and collect crabs. If you lose them, you'll have to find them and hunt for them, and even if you lose them all, you'll still be able to collect more! Are you going to play with it? ----- Such Art and Moon Music (SA:M) is a simulation game where you are in charge of your crab's estate. You can play with a friend, and collect crabs by using smartphone(iOS/Android) and send them to each other. In addition, you can collect crablings to increase your civilization's population. Play the game as you see fit! You are just a normal crab, but you are also the president! You have to make all sorts of decisions about your town, such as the amount of rain to let in, the amount of water in the lake, and much more. In order to do that, you have to collect resources, from various cities, and a single treasure chest. You can also ask other crabs from your town to join in on your fun. Playing with the crabs is easy and fun, while also having fun in the real world with your friends! What is it about your social life? ----- You were eating your favorite food, when suddenly you felt a strong memory from the past, and you found that you suddenly remembered a significant change in your life. A new opening or door will suddenly appear. What is the reason for this? It is the start of a little story where you can make all sorts of choices. When you enter the world, you'll make choices in the town that is being built. Then, on your way to find crabs, you will also have to make decisions regarding your friends, and things such as your love life. All of this is a
